Hortus Scope

What's Up in the Central Indiana Gardening Community

- A free monthly e-bulletin promoting gardening events and activities in the Indianapolis area.
- Seeking to inspire avid and wannabe gardeners and those who care about leaving a healthy planet to our grandchildren.
- Aiming to build community among people who love Nature and want to develop or restore healthy ecosystems.
- Regular features: plant society programs and workshops, Master Gardener fests, advocacy opportunities, hands-on volunteer opportunities, job notices.
- Rich in resources and contacts for exploring all the above.
